MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD:

SUBJECT: FBI QUERIES

1. Retirement Division (RD) representatives received three calls from Ms. Pat Ragle of the Employee Benefits Unit, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). C/RD received the first call from Ms. Ragle on 4 March 1987 requesting information on whether an FBI employee who transfers to the Agency would receive credit for "her" FBI service under the Agency retirement system. Ms. Ragle explained that she knew we had our own retirement system, but did not know whether CSRS time with the FBI would be creditable under the Agency's system. C/RD explained to Ms. Ragle:

- a) The special guidelines for qualifying for CIARDS;
- b) CSRS or FERS coverage afforded other Agency employees;
- c) Opportunities afforded CIARDS and CSRS Agency employees to convert to FERS or FERS Special Category during open season.

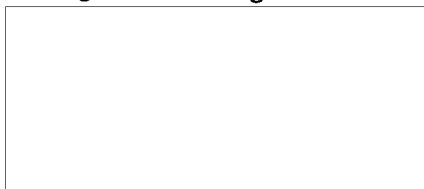

2. C/ROB spoke with Ms. Ragle a few hours later. She advised at that time that proposed DCI designate Webster had posed a hypothetical question as to whether an FBI special agent transferring into the Agency could continue to accrue credit for service under CSRS special law enforcement provisions after such transfer. She also wanted to know if pay for administratively uncontrollable overtime was ever considered in the high three calculations. C/ROB provided a negative response to both situations. Ms. Ragle was advised that:

- a) There is no Agency occupational category which allows credit under the CSRS special law enforcement provisions. Such FBI service, if less than 20 years would be creditable only as CSRS time, and,
- b) Overtime pay is never included in calculating the high three. We use only base pay.

SUBJECT: FBI QUERIES

3. Ms. Ragle contacted C/ROB again on 10 March and requested five brochures on the Association Benefit Plan and any available information we may have on an Agency sponsored life insurance plan. C/IOD provided brochures on the Agency life (UBLIC) and health plans which will be forwarded to Ms. Ragle. (This phone call was a follow up to a message Ms. Ragle had left for C/ROB on 4 March. She at that time had requested "five brochures on the Employee Organization Plan." C/ROB tried to reach her several times subsequent to receiving the message but Ms. Ragle was never available.)
